

NOTICE: The Department of Transportation is Taking Public Comments on Proposed Subtitle 03, Chapter 05 Ceremonial Street Signs

The Baltimore City Department of Transportation (BCDOT) is accepting comments on a proposed regulation of ceremonial street signs which will go into effect on the date the regulations are officially filed with Legislative Reference.

The proposed Ceremonial Street Sign regulations establish: an application process, an application fee, eligibility criteria for ceremonial street sign honorees, and the installation of commemorative street signs. This policy will be implemented jointly with the Mayor's Office of Neighborhoods (MON).

The full text of the Ceremonial Street Signs policy can be found online on our website at:

<https://transportation.baltimorecity.gov/>

You may review a paper copy of this policy by visiting:

- DOT Right-of-Way Division
401 East Fayette Street, Foyer
Baltimore, MD 21202.

You may share your comments via the following:

- By email at Neighborhood@BaltimoreCity.gov;
- By phone by calling (410) 545-0787; or
- By mail addressed to:
Mayor's Office of Neighborhoods
100 Holliday St, Rm 345
Baltimore, MD 21202.

The public comment period for the proposed regulations of ceremonial street signs is open through March 1, 2022.

Please be advised that you must wear a mask and maintain social distancing while at these facilities. You will have to submit to a brief COVID screening before entering the premises.

